So it was resolved in the affirmative; and the said bill being passed, was sent to the senate for concurrence.

Mr. Hughes, of Charles, was excused by the house from voting on the question last stated.

The bill reported by Mr. Ringgold, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the benefit of the infant children of Benjamin B. Wroth, late of Kent county, deceased, passed December session 1825, chapter 217, was taken up, read the second time, considered, and passed without amendment.

On motion by Mr. Goldsborough, the bill reported by Mr. Douglas, entitled, An act relating to constables' sales, and for other purposes, was referred to a committee of the whole house and made the order of the day for Thursday next, the 24th inst. The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
